

Bordeaux Bargains

We are lucky to live in a time when we are able to sample great wines from all over the world. That being said, SOHO WINES has decided to bring you a sampling of excellent reasonably priced Bordeaux, arguably the most classic of fine wines.

Below are some examples:

|      |   | Bottle | Case    |
|------|---|--------|---------|
| 2014 | Ch. Les Martins (Bordeaux)              | $7.99 | $86.30 |
| 2017 | Ch. La Graviere Blanc (Entre Deux Mers) | $7.99 | $86.30 |

These remarkable Chateau Bottled wines are elegant enough for your haute cuisine, yet inexpensive enough for everyday dining! Try a bottle, you'll be back for a case!

These are some more modestly priced wine to treat your guests as well as yourself:

|      |                                 | Bottle  | Case     |
|------|---------------------------------|---------|----------|
| 2005 | Ch. Begadanet (Médoc)           | $19.99 | $215.00 |
| 2014 | Ch. Hyot (Cotes de Castillon)   | $13.99 | $151.00 |
| 2014 | Ch. Bellvue Laffon (Haut Médoc) | $17.99 | $195.00 |
| 2015 | Ch. Marjosse (Bordeaux)         | $18.99 | $205.00 |

The wines below from the great 2009/2010 vintages are becoming increasingly difficult to find as well as increasingly expensive. They include selections from Medoc, the heart of Bordeaux, as well as St Emilion and Pessac Léognan.

|      |                                     | Bottle  | Case     |
|------|-------------------------------------|---------|----------|
| 2009 | Ch. Simard (St. Emilion Grand Cru)) | $34.99 | $385.00 |
| 2009 | Ch. Brown (Pessac Léognan-Graves)   | $49.99 | $540.00 |
