

Bordeaux Gift Box

Need a last minute gift or a quick 3 bottles of fine Bordeaux for yourself, we have the perfect solution: The Soho Bordeaux Box, containing three excellent moderately priced bottles:

2015 CHATEAU TAILLEFER (Pomerol)—One of the oldest properties in the Pomerol appellation, dating back to at least 1785. The chateau was built in the early 1800's. Ch. Taillefer is historic for another reason: it is the first property purchased by the Moueix dynasty. Antoine Moueix bought the estate in 1923,. In 2013, Ch. Taillefer was entrusted to its 5th generation. Claire and her husband, Cyril strive to perpetuate the family tradition and bring a fresh, new perspective.

2016 LES PILIERS de CHATEAU MAISON BLANCHE (Montagne-St.-Emilion)—Only a few kilometers from Saint-Emion's prestigious crus classés, Nicolas Despaigne is producing fascinating wines from woefully underrated terroir. A man who takes nothing for granted, Nicolas is constantly searching for new ways to innovate in both vineyard and cellar and his boundless energy expresses itself in the wines. After joining his father here in 1995, Nicolas took over Ch. Maison Blanche in 2009, the third generation of his family to do so.

2016 CHATEAU LA TOUR DE MONS (Margaux)—With a history dating back to the 13th century and a terroir to match, Chateau La Tour de Mons is one of the most notable exclusions of the 1855 Medoc classification. Located in the northern sector of Margaux in the
